known her 8 or 9 months. She lived in Greenwich corner of Dev street when I first knew her. She moved then to Maiden-lane, thence to 82 Canal-street, where she boarded with Mrs. Baxter. Saw her when I went to get clothes. I washed for her. I knew when she was taken up. Before that she gare me a little box to keep for her. I was away at my work and she sent her husband after me. I went the next day t see her at her boarding house on the afternoon of a Friday. She told me at first she had some sewing she wanted me t do. After giving me the sewing, she said she had a little box the wanted me to take care of for her—to put it in my trunk and let no one see it or steal it. She said there was valuable jewelry in the box. It was in her own room where she gav me the box, telling me to take it home. I was at Mrs. Hunme the box, terning the to take it home. I was at Mrs. Hunter's, and I carried the box there. It was a morocco box, and sealed up in paper. I carried the box to Mrs, Hunter's that night and left it. Saw it again on Saturday morning. The box was opened on Saturday morning. Mrs. Hunter and my-self only were present when opened. There was first yellow paper on the box tied on with cord—the next was newspaper which was sealed. Broke the seals, took off the newspaper, then there was white paper, then we came to the trunk, which was not locked. Opened it, found a pocket handkerchief, a pane, and a flannel bag sewed up both ends. Ripped the bag and found rolls of bills inside of it-some hops also. Took and found rolls of bills. There were three rolls. I cannot read.

Mrs. Hunter saw the denomination of the bills. There were some gold coin and some silver in the box, and a gold pencil case in the small box, and some calico like the frock Mrs. Ragge has on now; also a box of rings. The box shown and sidentified—also a watch key, sterl pens, and a stamp for seals identified. Never saw the box before. After opening the box put in all the contents, and left all with Mrs. Hunter.— Next saw the box at the Police. Knows Saunders. Have seen him at Mrs. Ragge's once or twice. Mr. and Mrs. Ragge were present. It was in Ragge's room, who was sick. Did not see Saunders there afterwards. It was early in the evening when I saw Saunders there, and I left him there-Never saw them together but that once, and that was in Canal-street. Mrs. Ragge had paid witness off before she gave her the box. Paid me nothing that day or that week. She owed me some $4 or $5 before she gave me the box. Did not pay me all at once. She paid me in Greenwich-street $4 at one time. Often called on her for money. She said she would pay me as soon as she could. Gave me ence some would pay me as soon as she could. Gave me ence some sewelry to take to a jeweller and see what it was worth.—

Never gave me any thing except the box to keep. When she gave me the box, she told me to take it, go right home, and say nothing about it. The first time after that I saw her was at the Police.

Cross-examined. . First heard that a forgery had been committed after the box was opened. First heard of a reward to be given after the box was given up. I understood the reward was to be $5000. I have got none of it yet. The Chancellor has awarded $1500 to witness. The money is in the bank. Thave given an order for it to Mr. Warner. Gave an order to Mr. Oxley, where I am a servant, to see that I get the money, and take care of it for me.

Frederick Patchman, a jeweler, sworn. Lives at 90 Canal-street. Has seen Ragga 6 times. Sold him in S-ptember a gold pencil case, the one shown, and he paid me $5.50 for Sold him also a pair of gold sleeve buttons for $450. He paid me a $50 bill on a Ward Bank-cannot say what Ward. Sent it out and got it changed at a grocery; cannot tell the man's name. Oh Monday night he gave me his name to put on the buttons. He got them on Tuesday, the 5th September. My partner sold him something besides. I was not present at the time. Saw it on the book. The court then adjourned to 11 o'clock on Thursday.

POLICE OFFICE.—CHARGE OF FRAUD.—Quite a young man named James R. Hughes, was arrested this morning, charged by Mr. James A. Sparks, proprietor of the "Churchman," No. 119 Nassau street, with fraud, or having collected money from the subscribers to that paper, and appropriated it to his own use without any right or authority. It appeared that Mr. Sparks had about the 1st of August last, employed Hughes as clerk, and after five or six weeks had discharged him. While there he had access to the books, and making out bills against subscribers without leave or order, proceeded to collect some after his discharge. Ho collected $9 of Mr. E. Carpenter, 201 Broadway, $3 from Mr. David H. Dick, 118 Fourth street, and in all $25, which he applied to his own use. He confessed, and was committed to answer. A SOLDIER IN BAD QUARTERS .- Yesterday a soldier named James Harvey was paid off at Fort Hamilton and discharged. He came to the City, went to the Five Points last evening, and while in a disreputable house, 148 Anthonystreet, he was robbed by two girls of $120, one of whom escaped. The other, named Catharine Everton, was arrested by Officer Nealis, and was committed;—but the money was not recovered. CORONER'S OFFICE.....EXAMINATION OF WIL-

There is a tolerably heavy aggregate of grain afloat today, which receives due attention from the millers. A cargo of Chicago was taken at 74c: another cargo of Milan brought 73 cents, and 600 bush, of Southport sold at the same to go to Lockport. Every facility asked for the conveyance of lots purchased, is afforded the millers. Boats are tolerably plenty, and there is no obstruction on the canal. Several lots of Western Flour have changed hands at $3 63 a 3 68. A cargo of Corn is afloat but not on the market. Salt is in de mand, and held at $1 50. The export of this article during the past eight days was almost suspended, notwithstanding our stock is fair for the season.

The brig Virginia and a number of up lakers are in: but we ars unable to obtain their cargoes.

The genuineness of an article is frequently known by the general use made of it, and so it is with Dr. Covert's Balm or Life; it is so highly prized by some that if they cannot procure money to purchase the article, they resort to other means to obtainit. Only last Sunday night the office of Dr Covert was broken open and a quantity of the Balm was taken out; much good may it do those who have taken it. The Balm is a cure for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, &c. if used in season, and we expect that those who broke into our office, and took the Balm will do us the favor of giving a certificate of its effects; this is the least they can do.

Pills are a most extraordinary modicine for the cure of Rheumatism and Gout, because they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels of those morbid humors which, if taken into the circulation and thrown upon the membrane and muscle, are the cause of the above painful maladies, but they excite the absorbent vessels to take up that which is already deposited, and therefore are absolutely certain to make a perfect cure of rhematism and cour. A single 25 cent box of said Indian Vegetable Pills will often give the most astonishing relief, and perseverance according to the directions will be certain to drive pain of every description from the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills also aid and improve digestion, and purify the blood, therefore give health and vigor to the whole frame, as well as make a perfect cure of rheumatics and gout.

ATTENTION, EVERYBODY! THIS DAY PUBLISHED, PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS THE FIRST AMERICAN FROM THE THIRTIETH LONDON

> EDITION OF ABERNETHY'S FAMILY PHYSICIAN:

READY PRESCRIBER, In all Cases of Illness or Accident, where Medical Attendance is not required or cannot be procured. Revised and Enlarged by H. Bostwick, M. D. This work, by one of the most intelligent and successful of modern Physicians, should find a place in the Library of every family in the country, it being the cheapest, most modern,

and complete
BOOK OF DOMESTIC MEDICINE ever published. It is far superior to Buchan's antiquated treatise, and all similar works.

How much better would it be for invalids it, instead of dosing themselves with the quack nostrums, pills and panaceas which so abound, they would turn to the pages of this valuable manual, and under the appropriate head find and adopt the prescription suitable to their complaint—a prescription recommended by one of the most popular scientific Physicians of any age.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. "Decidedly the best of the numerous manuals of domestic medicine before the public." [London Examiner.

"The name of the compiler of this useful work is a passport to every man's confidence. No family should be without this excellent work by the great Abernethy." [Court Journal." The prescriptions are numerous, and drawn up with great care. Every variety of disease is treated of, and the best remedies for all are given in a manner intelligible both to the unprofessional reader and the apoth-cary."

unprofessional reader and the apoth-cary. "The best and most trustworthy treatise of the kind. Every person who is traveling should put one of these books in his trunk. The chapter on the treatment of Accidents is alone worth the whole price of the book." [London Times. "We repudiate self-doctoring;—but here is a book," says the London Atlas, "which every provident father of a family should have; for there are occasions when the advice it gives, in cases of illness and accident.

MUST BE INVALUABLE:"

The Bible Exposition, Conformations of the truth of THE BIBLE EXPOSITOR, Conformations of the tradicional the Holy Scriptures, from the observations of various recent Travelers, illustrating the manners, customs and places referred to in the Holy Bible. Illustrated with upward of seventy Engravings—published under the direction of the Society for the promotion of Christian Knowledge, London.

"The Holy Scriptures contain many passages full of improvement heavy, but not generally, understood because portance and beauty, but not generally understood, because they contain allusion to manners and customs, familiar indeed to those to whom they were obtginally addressed, but imper-fectly known to us. In order to obviate this difficulty, this volume is now presented to the public, consisting of extracts from the narratives of travelers who have recorded the cu-toms of the oriental nations, from whom we learn that some usages were retained among them to this day, such as existed hal times. The compiler of this volume trusts that it ma be the means, under God's providence, of leading unlearned readers to a more general acquaintance with Eastern customs, and assist them to a clearer perception of the propriety and beauty of the silustrations so often drawn from them in the Bible.
